The Black Law Students Association and the DuFour Law Library are celebrating Black History Month by presenting an exhibit entitled African Americans in Times of War: An Exhibit Honoring CUA Law School Veterans. The exhibit features three CUA Law African American veterans, Latena Hazard (3D), Michael Pee (4E), and Jae Terry (2D). By recognizing these three veterans, we hope to give viewers some insight into military service and the sacrifices that servicemembers make. The exhibit is located in the Law Library lobby.

The theme, designated by the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH), commemorates the centennial of the end of the First World War in 1918, and “provides a broad, useful framework for focusing on the roles of African Americans in every American war, from the Revolutionary War Era to that of the present War against Terrorism.” Please see asalh.org for more information on this year’s theme.

Wolters Kluwer Study Aids

This semester the library is testing out a new online study aids platform as a pilot project. Wolters Kluwer (WK) Study Aids provides unlimited online access to hundreds of titles from Wolters Kluwer Legal Education. Nine series are available, including the very popular series Examples & Explanations, Emanuel Law Outlines, and Glannon Guides. Books on academic success are also included as part of this package.
