LIBRARY BRIEFS

OCTOBER 2018

CUA LAW ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE EXHIBIT

The Judge Kathryn J. DuFour Law Library is celebrating this year’s Alumni Reunion Weekend by presenting an exhibit entitled CUA Law on the International Stage, with a special focus on the Law School’s relationship with Jagiellonian University in Cracow, Poland. CUA Law’s relationship with Jagiellonian University began in 1991 with the establishment of the International Business and Trade Summer Law Program, and has grown to include the American Law Program and the CUA-JU LL.M. in American Law. The Law School has a long and rich history with the world at large, a history that includes international conferences, visits by foreign dignitaries, special programs, and lectures. The exhibit will feature photographs, documents, and other memorabilia highlighting CUA Law’s presence on the international stage. The exhibit will be in the Reference Room during Reunion Weekend, October 19 – 21.

TEXTBOOKS IN THE LIBRARY

The Library buys textbooks for all 1L and other required courses, as well as for all staple courses. They can be checked out for three-hour periods from the Circulation Desk. While not meant to replace purchased or rented textbooks, they can be handy when you find you have left your copy at home. A link to the complete list:
https://libguides.law.cua.edu/study/textbooks

STUDY ROOMS AND THE STUDY ROOM RESERVATION SYSTEM

To make a reservation, go to the law library’s home page at https://www.law.edu/library. Click “Reserve A Study Room” under “Student Services”. You can reserve for the current day or click “Go to Date” which allows you to select a future date. You can choose the room you want to reserve – as well as the time. Before your reservations are finalized, you will be asked to input your CUA login and password. (Note to 2L and 3L students! This is a different procedure from the previous study room reservation system which required you to enter your last name and library barcode.)

Study Room Rules

- There are 7 study rooms located on the 4th floor of the law library.
- Study Rooms A-F (room numbers 434-439) each have the capacity to seat 8 students. These rooms may not be reserved for individual use.
- Study Room 433 is a smaller study room which can be reserved for individual use or groups of two.
- Rooms are limited to 3 hours per day per person. (Restricted to current CUA law students only.)
- Reservations will be forfeited after 30 minutes.

CHANGE IN LIBRARY HOURS FOR COLUMBUS DAY

The Law Library will be open Monday, October 9 at 9 am instead of the usual 7:30 am opening time. Check the Law Library Blog for more updates.

SCOTUSBLOG

The October 2018 term of the U.S. Supreme Court has begun. Keep up with the current issues with SCOTUSBLOG. SCOTUSBLOG is an award winning site that covers news developments, and provides thoughtful analysis of arguments and case decisions. It is also a great source for commentary on past decisions, with an archive going back to 2005.